Head Quarters
Fort Corcoran

2nd Regt. Maine Volunteers
Sept. 19th. 1861.

Dear Sir

Quarter Master, Lieut.

C. F. Lord having resigned and received his discharge from the service, I have this day appointed to fill the vacancy Sam<sup>l</sup> W. Hoskins of Andover. His commission I should like sent to him immediately. Please use all the means in your power to recruit my regiment as owing to many whom I have on account of incurable diseases been obliged to discharge, my force is gradually getting very small. In the next engagement, I should like to hear if possible a respectable part. I think the raising of a Cavalry Regiment in Maine rather a humbug. The horses will be good but the riders poor for at least a year to come, and for one I should during one of their charges keep at a very respectable distance, infirmly properly armed, or if possible <sup>light</sup> assisting one of the most service.

Very respectfully Yours In haste

To Hon Isaac Washburn Jr
